Parish Feast Day Celebration Save the Date: June 23, 2018

Thank you to all who made this year's celebration a success. So many deserve our gratitude for planning and executing the liturgy and the dinner, but each of you who came to Mass and shared the dinner also made the day special. It was both an opportunity to honor our patrons and to build up our parish community. When we build community by interacting with each other, we are living the answer. Our Lord's prayer "that they may be one." Mark your calendar now for next year's celebration. Together, we keep the gift of faith, entrusted to us by our Lord, alive for generations to come!

Pilgrimage to The Loretto Chapel

St. Odilia has a pilgrimage to Santa Fe, New Mexico to visit the miraculous staircase of the Loretto Chapel. The group will be led by the Pastor, Fr. Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Mighty God

The first reading says that God's might is the basis for divine justice. We might take this to mean that God uses mighty power to punish sinners, in the legal sense of justice. But God is too powerful to be injured by our sins. God can afford to wait for us to repent. That is the point of the parable of the wheat and the weeds. We are used to expecting swift justice. We like TV shows in which the bad guy is caught and convicted in an hour. The idea of God giving sinners until the end of time to repent is almost un-American--at least, until we realize that we are sinners, too. Yet God is still willing to wait for all of us to repent. That is the wonder of God's love, that God's Son came to die for sinners, even before we sinned.

Of course, that means that we also share forgiveness with others. But the more often we go to confession, the more we are reminded of God's love and forgiveness. Those reminders can help us to be more willing to show mercy ourselves. Let us ask God for the courage to seek forgiveness and the strength to forgive.
