“OPEN BETHLEHEM”

“Open Bethlehem” as seen in the November issue of the Catholic Outlook will be shown in Tucson on December 2, from 2:30-4:40 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Gymnasium. The film, a “big film about a small town” has been described by Rev. Desmond Tutu as “a non-violent attempt to save a city that belongs to many in the world.” Leila Sansour, the film’s producer, will be available to answer questions after the viewing. Leila invites us to become a Citizen of Bethlehem and join the network of Ambassadors. There will be an opportunity to purchase a Bethlehem Passport and/or a DVD. The event is brought to the Diocese of Tucson by members of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre. In Support of our Seminarian Education

During the weekend of Dec. 9-10 our parish will be asking you, our parish faithful, to donate to the Diocese of Tucson special collection for the Seminarian Education Fund. The 17 men studying to serve as priests in our diocese are seeking to be servant leaders spiritually, pastorally and administratively. Please be as generous as you can in helping these young men answer the call to priesthood.

Seminarrians were asked:

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT FOR YOU TO SERVE IN THE DIOCESE OF TUCSON?

“I was born and raised in Tucson and love it dearly. The culture, the atmosphere, the people, all are a part of me and being able to bring Christ to my home town and help build up his kingdom is an immense blessing.” Carlos Nagore

Tucson is home. I first heard God’s invitation to service in Tucson and have always found it confirmed here.” Richard Rivera

“It is important for me to serve . . . the community that I have been a part of and that I have grown up in, and in which I believe God is calling me to serve.” Alan Soto Hopkins

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE TO THOSE WHO SUPPORT SEMINARY FORMATION

“I am extremely grateful for your contribution to our formation. You could not have contributed to a nobler, more essential, or more necessary cause, and as someone whose whole life will be spent dedicated to this cause, I will try to live up to its ideals the best that I can.” Isaac Allwin

“Thank you to all of our benefactors. With your support we are reminded often of our call to return the same love to others that we have received.” Joe Schaaf

“I feel a deep sense of gratitude for all of you who kindly provide both financial and prayerful support for my/our seminary formation. We offer daily prayers for abundance of blessings upon you all and your loved ones.” Justin Agbir

With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the country. In addition, 25 percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins.
